

Golf Trip

8-12 May 2013

Kent

SVENID

Keeping it simple for 2013, back to Kent and the Black Horse Inn. As per last year, 1 practice round on the Wednesday and then 3 courses for the competition. We're going back to some old favourites, Hever Castle Golf Club and either East Sussex National or Chart Hills. Finishing off with a trip back to France for the final round.

Most of you have stayed at the Black Horse Inn before so I don't need to tell you anything about it, picture below in case you've forgotten what it looks like!

Wednesday 8 May

Bearsted Golf Club

Practice round and only 5 minutes drive from the hotel. I've never considered this course good enough for the main competition but as a practice round on the day you arrive it is perfect.

Thursday 9 May

East Sussex National

For what will be the 4th time it is back to the West course on the East Sussex National. Most of you will know what this course is all about. If you don't, it's a Championship course that used to be on the European Tour; trees, water and beautiful fairways & greens.

East Sussex National

Friday 10 May

Hever Castle Golf Club

An old favourite and one that you have played many times before. They have spent a lot of money on the course and club house since you were last there and it is playing and looking better than ever. I am a member of this golf club.

Saturday 11 May

Belle Dune Golf Club

France

A new course in France for us to play, Belle Dune is part Wentworth part St Andrews. The plan is to get the ferry over to France and come back on the Eurotunnel. It will be an early start and we'll be back at the Black Horse Inn for dinner at 21:00.
